

MARKET TOWN DAYS in Žužemberk

Žužemberk, Suha krajina – 16, 17, 18 and 18 July 2010

The Market Town Days represent the biggest and most visible cultural, recreational and tourist event in Suha krajina, but are one of the biggest events in the wider Dolenjska region. The event brings together past and present.

The programme features a host of established Slovenian as well as foreign artists. The event at Žužemberk commences with the opening of a painting exhibition and concert by one of the legends of Slovenian music, continues with the presentation of Slovenian ethnology, songs and dances, bike race, market town games, performances by young accordion players, the Suha krajina market and a true party.

Sunday is the day for the well-known and celebrated Medieval Day. This also marks the central event accompanied by the market, knights, medieval ladies, dances, knight duels and interesting events from the extensive history of the Žužemberk Castle. After 9 p.m., municipality festivities are celebrated with a concert by a famous Slovenian band and fireworks....

The Market Town Days conclude on Monday with one hour of memory commemorating the birth of Rozalija Sršen or Zalla Zarana – the first Hollywood actress from Slovenia, born on 16 July 1897 at Žužemberk.
